OBJECTIVES OF THE CERTIFICATE COURSE IN HUMAN RIGHTS

This course provides an introduction to basic human rights philosophy, principles, instruments and institutions, and also an overview of current issues and debates in the field with focus on the problems specific to India and other socially backward countries facing human rights violations rampantly. You will be able to identify the major international declarations, treaties, and covenants governing human rights, and also the mechanisms for monitoring and enforcing human rights standards. You will also have a strong working knowledge of the major human rights conventions, processes, and techniques. This course will also assist you to understand the application of rights in international, regional, constitutional and domestic contexts.

This course provides an introduction to basic human rights philosophy, principles, instruments and institutions, and also an overview of current issues and debates in the field with focus on the problems specific to India and other socially backward countries facing human rights violations rampantly. It also aims to explore some aspects of the diverse and increasingly complex body of international law of human rights that has both national and international application. Upon the completion of this course, you will understand the key historical, political, legal and moral influences that have shaped the idea of "human rights" and be able to explain the concept of a right and to analyse the contemporary challenges and trends in human rights theory and practice. You will be able to identify the major international declarations, treaties, and covenants governing human rights, and also the mechanisms for monitoring and enforcing human rights standards. You will also have a strong working knowledge of the major human rights conventions, processes, and techniques. This course will also assist you to understand the application of rights in international, regional, constitutional and domestic contexts.
