WOMEN DEVELOPMENT CELL INAUGURAL REPORT- 2019-20

The Women Development Cell of VES College of Law was inaugurated on 31st August 2019, Saturday in the presence of highly distinguished dignitaries from various fields of work and knowledge. The programme commenced at around 10 a.m. in the VESAC Auditorium by invoking the blessings of Goddess Sarasvari and lighting the lamp. The dais was graced by Mr. B.L. Boolani (Trustee, VES College of Law), Adv. Laxman Kanat (Trustee-In-charge, VES College of Law), Dr. Saigita Chitru (Professor at Tata Institute of Social Sciences) and the head of the Women Development Cell, Dr. Jyoti Deshmukh (Principal, VES College of Law).

Ms. Anala Joseph (TYBLS, student) formally welcomed all the dignitaries present on the dais. Dr. Jyoti Deshmukh welcomed the guests and Prof. Shubhangi Deshmukh welcomed Dr. Jyoti Deshmukh, with floral bouquets. A formal introduction about the guest of honour, Dr. Saigita Chitru, was given by Ms. Poorva Lamba (TYBLS, student).

Dr. Jyoti Deshmukh in her introductory address mentioned about how women allow themselves to be treated as lower class and how they should come forward and voice their opinions. Prof. Shubhangi Deshmukh, briefed everyone present about how this noble initiative commenced, their aims of empowering women all around, and about the relentless working of about 50 student members of this cell and how they have been able to get permissions from over 45 colleges in Mumbai for conducting Women's Rights awareness lectures.

The chief guest, Dr. Saigita Chitru delivered an amazing informative lecture on how times have changed and women and men have come to the same level of understanding and job division. She also addressed on issues commonly faced by women and how they should fight for their rights at the same time also fulfil their duties. Adv. Laxman Kanat opined that time has come, where women in particular, are leaving no stones unturned in their way to success and glory.

The Presidential Address was given by Mr. B.L. Boolani, who in his address, insisted on the responsibility that we have towards the society and also emphasised on the fact that mere words would not work towards the welfare of our female section, but our actions should be able to prove the same.

A note of gratitude was proposed, thanking all the dignitaries, Dr. Jyoti Deshmukh (Principal), Prof. Shubhangi Deshmukh and Prof. Sumita Honawar (teachers-in-charge), Prof. Rita and Prof. Sumita (teachers from Arts, Science and Commerce Department), all the female teaching and non-teaching staff and the student members of the Cell for their untiring work and constant support. A special mention to Prof. Bhushan M. Shinde was also made for helping in putting up the event together successfully.

The programme concluded with a Self Defence Session for girls conducted by Ms. Bhakti Bhanushali (5th year LLB, student) and Ms. Priyanka Rajak (5th year BLS, student) in the college still area.

Respected Sir/Madam,

VES College of Law is established in the year 2009 and is well known for its integrity, accountability and transparency. During these 10 years beyond sound education, we have provided holistic learning experience of life to our students.

Every year we organize legal counseling camps to provide free legal counseling to needy people of the society. This is an endeavor of the college to sensitize the young students in general and girl students in particular. This year, through Women Development Cell, we are aiming to spread awareness about safeguards, rights and legislative protection available in India to Women across all the schools and colleges in Mumbai.

By allowing this initiative, your institution will be playing an essential role to help the society grow. Your response and permission towards this initiative will be highly appreciated.

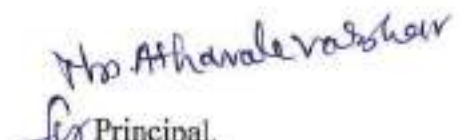

Hereby, you are humbly requested to co-operate and make the necessary arrangements in your School/College. Kindly convey the date and time as per your convenience from the 11th to 20th September, 2019.

Subject: Organization of legal awareness program for students from standard 8th to 12th.

Respected Sir/Madam,

VES College of Law is established in the year 2009 and is well known for its integrity, accountability and transparency. During these 10 years beyond sound education, we have provided holistic learning experience of life to our students.

Every year we organize legal counseling camps to provide free legal counseling to needy people of the society. This is an endeavor of the college to sensitize the young students in general and girl students in particular. This year, through Women Development Cell, we are aiming to spread awareness about safeguards, rights and legislative protection available in India to Women across all the schools and colleges in Mumbai.

By allowing this initiative, your institution will be playing an essential role to help the society grow. Your response and permission towards this initiative will be highly appreciated.

Herby, you are humbly requested to co-operate and make the necessary arrangements in your School/College. Kindly convey the date and time as per your convenience from the 11th to 20th September, 2019.

Thanking you

VES College of Law is established in the year 2009 and is well known for its integrity, accountability and transparency. During these 10 years beyond sound education, we have provided holistic learning experience of life to our students.

Every year we organize legal counseling camps to provide free legal counseling to needy people of the society. This is an endeavor of the college to sensitize the young students in general and girl students in particular. This year, through Women Development Cell, we are aiming to spread awareness about safeguards, rights and legislative protection available in India to Women across all the schools and colleges in Mumbai.

By allowing this initiative, your institution will be playing an essential role to help the society grow. Your response and permission towards this initiative will be highly appreciated.

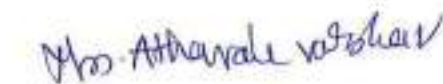

Hereby, you are humbly requested to co-operate and make the necessary arrangements in your School/College. Kindly convey the date and time as per your convenience from the 11th to 20th September, 2019.

LEGAL COUNSELLING CAMP

A Free Legal Counselling Camp was organised by V.E.S. College of Law, in its college campus on 9th March 2019 between 11 to 2 pm. The camp was organised as a part of social responsibility of the college i.e. the legal profession/fraternity towards the society at large. The principal objective of the camp was to identify those who were in dire need of legal aid and also to target those who did not have the economic prowess to avail such legal aid and counselling.

The camp was aimed at providing help and guidance to the underprivileged masses as well as the needy by resolving their respective legal problems and grievances under the esteemed guidance of some of the best legal luminaries and practitioners having expertise and experience in various fields of law. The chief guests for the free legal aid/counselling camp was none other than Senior Adv. Shri Abhay Kulkarni & Senior Advocate Reshna Ruparel. More than 150 litigants made use of the presence of eminent lawyers and were counseled for their various legal issues.

Legal Aid Camp, 2019 (10th March, 2019)

Legal Aid Camp, 2019 was an initiative by V.E.S. College of Law in order to provide free legal aid and assistance to people from the vicinity in a variety of matters. Advocates from different fields and Principals from various law colleges in Mumbai had graced their presence in the program, who advised more than 100 clients in civil disputes, family matters, property matters and criminal cases.

Photographs from the Legal Aid Camp, 2019 where Advocates practising before different Courts and Principals from various law colleges advised over 100 clients from the vicinity on a wide variety of legal matters.
