3. The case number PMLA SPL Case 101000071/2019 was called out. and Spp Sunil Gonsalves & IO Deepak Kumar for ED were present along with an accused, Ranjit Singh Bindra on the other side.

4. The accused respondent with the permission of the court began by listing out the gist of the case.

5. He mentioned that charge sheet/complained filed were with respect to 9 schedule offences. as expressed laid out in prevention of money Laundering Act 2002,

6. He explained the facts of the case with respect to Gangster. Iqbal Mirchi whose 3 properties were the subject of the case.

7. The defendant pointed out that he a was broker for the purchassing party parchased the alleged tainted properties connected to Iqbal Mirchi & he was - not broker for the selling side.

8. The accused argued that in terms of provision of section 3 of prevention of money laundering Act the accused did not deal with any proceed, of crime for him to be charged under the Act.

V.E.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

9. The court pointed out that section 3 of prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 is laid out as follows. 'Whosoever directly or indirectly attempts to include or knowingly assists or knowingly is a party or is actually involved in any process or activity connected with the proceed of crime including its concealement possession acquisstion or use and projecting or claiming it as entained property shall be guilty of offence of money laundering

10. The court stressed on wording of defination as it starts with "Whosoever, direct or indirectly attempt .... shall be guilty of offence of money laundering which means that defendants arguments as to him being broker for purchasing side does not make a difference with respect to allegations made against him.

11. The defendant however continued to stre his points on the above and also progressed with bringing out other facts of the case.

V. E. S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

12. Another argument brought out by defendant was that Ajay Vaziranı, an advocate counsel to Iqbal Mirchi gave instruction with regards to transaction and setting of tenancy matters, with respect to the alleged tainted properties. However he was not the accused in this case as he acted in his professional capacity which is correct according to the defendant.

13. pointing out the above fact the defendant argued that. when he dealt on purchase of alleged tainted properties he dealt only as a broker. which shall be considered to be under professional capacity by the court.

14. According to defense just as Ajay Vaziranı, he shall be granted exemption from the offences as are mentioned under Prevention of money laundering Act 2002. as he too acted in his professional capacity.

As the time for our court visit expired at 2.00pm are haul to cleave the court premisse however the arguments over the matter continued

Importance of Mooting.

This article is written by Saksham Chhabra of UPES and Ayushi Kumari from Gujarat National Law University.

Meaning of the term mooting:-

Mooting is a form of an oral proceeding similar to that of a court proceeding practiced mainly in institutions and universities where law as a subject is taught to see that how efficient a student is in fighting an argument based on law.

Importance of mooting:-

Mooting helps in the overall development of an individual as a good and proficient lawyer and participating in moot court competition regularly makes a student familiar with the proceedings that take place generally in real courtrooms. Thus the advantages of mooting are as follows.

A) Networking

One of the important features of mooting is that it helps you to connect and socialize with so many people across the globe with whom you connect in the process of mooting.

College of Law Chembur Mumbai

B. Researching and writing Skills.

participating in the moot court competitions helps you in enhancing your researching skills because it is your research on the basis of which you will be fighting your case and representing your side and it also helps you in framing a good moot court.

C. Building confidence

mooting helps an individuals to build his confidence in communicating and putting his view front of the people it helps to build his confidence to such an entent that he does not fear to question or to speak in front of anybod and can fight cases efficiently.

D. Practical knowledge:-

Mooting helps in giving the practical implication and knowledge to the students who are studying law in such a way which they will never find in the books and would be unaware of.

S. College of Chembur Mumbai

E. Team work.

moot court competitions take place in the school or colleges who organizes it and the various teams from different colleges come and participates in the event. the team comprises of 3 students with one as the researcher and the other two as the speakers presenting their arguments. on their side.

What is the purpose of mooting?

The main purpose of mooting is to establish a good overview by the students of law and enhancing the legal skills. Mooting is a concept where there is a mooting proposition which is related to any law related subject which a given to all the teams in advance so that they can preparee for that in the from of memorial.

A. Society welfare

The Society needs efficient lawyers mainly judges and advocates so that the society can benefit at large due to pendency of the cases in India. For purpose to provide proficient individuals who are perfect in their field is not an easy task for the same purpose mooting is really important.

K.E.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

B. practicing

The main purpose of mooting is that to make you practice before actually becom a professional and practising in courtrooms about everything. If you have years of practi then it is easier for one to make a lot of clients because of his practise and knowledge one has gained in the field.

C. Experience :

An Important part of every Individuals life from which it grows is the experience he gains from the life that he gets is the gaining experience that matters when the case or proposition is related to very controversial laws and topics and at that time the experience help his as how t go ahead in the case.

D. Creative thinking:-

When one participates in different kinds of moot court competitions in various places and colleges there might arise situations that you have to play with words and mould the case in your favour then there comes the art of creative thinking which you are required to show and you have to think on your feet as you cannot be prepared for everythink.

E. Motivation:

Lastly Students who participate first time in this kind of activities not only get the exposure but also the motivation to take part in a more comprehensive way and in other Competition and moots as well.

How to become a good mooter?

1. you must know your case well and when presenting your case before the Judge.

M.E.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

2. You should be well versed about the case and not read off your notes instead read of the case.

3. Make a small list of all points tha you want to present in your case so tha no point is left and it is easier than the judge will also take more interest.

4. It is important that while presenting yo case you should argue upon the facts rat than the law.

5. Lastly there are many courses and coachings that teaches how become a good mooter.

Things that should be avoided by th mooters.

1. If you do happen to interrupt or speak over a Judge stop talking right away.

College of Law Chembur

2. No matter what occurs or how ashamed you become do not become enraged confrontation or leave the courtroom.

3. Do not veer from the original plan. That isn't to say you shouldn't try to please the Judge.

4. And one should never answer a question without first thinking it through or it will end up with two seconds of quietness for you.

5. And lastly one of the most important things is don't let on that you're nervous. Your anxiety may affect the Judges opinion of you.

Conclusion:-

We believe that mooting is one of the essential parts for a law student to get the proficiency in this field and one must do different kinds of mooting as the amount of exposure it gives to the students is tremendous plus the the knowledge and experience gained by the students motivate them to come up and show their skills.

How did you apply?
I had sent my resume through Email to ~~prakash 2~~ jmjurix@gmail.com and it got selected

V.E.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

Objective:-

Being a law student during the studies of different acts, sections and cases. I analysed that with the theoretical or bookish knowledge it is also important to have practical knowledge regarding legal field which will help me during my litigation as well as for securing my future.

There were several objectives. I wanted to work on throughout my first year and Internship gave me the opportunity to fulfil all those objectives. I decided advocate's chamber because I wanted to gain practical knowledge and personal development in legal profession that I planned on obtaining during my internship. The purpose was to visit the courts so that I can learn how the arguments between the advocates used to be done during the court proceedings and how they mould themselves for winning the cases.

V.E.S.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

First day formalities Infrastructure, first Impression.
About the organization.

The practice of organization was completely based on litigation. It deals with criminal civil, Income tax Consumer negotiation and other matters.

1. The chamber was at Bar Council build. civil court. I was asked to introduce myself to the whole staff of chamber. The court chamber consisted of several staff members who works as Junior advocates under the internship officer.

2. formalities in the chamber were he about to Zero. It was very informal because I was free to ask anything and could take any file of the chamber for reading without anyones permission

3. As for as formalities are concerned I was only required to come in law [illegible]. First day formalities were such that I was supposed to be there but not known with the fact that what I had to do there. So I was made to sit in the chamber of the Advocate under whom I was interning.

4. On the very first day of my internship I had to give a brief introduction I had to give to them about myself and answer them a few questions of law and future planing of my career.

5. The district court at times becomes so unpredictable that I was confused in the manner the case files rotates. The advocates have to keep on moving from one court room to another court room. The court room of district judge is of classic infrastructure. There were the prisoners are made to stand in front of district judge.

Main Tasks.

It was a full-time internship for the duration of 4 weeks. I had to reach the Chambers at sharp 11 am each day

College of Law Chembur Mumbai

During my Internship Lok Sabha elections were going on so sir asked me whom do you support and why? I replied to his question and he just said ok. We even had a little tour of the Court where we shown the Court rooms. the proceedi Judges victims Criminals. etc.

I was also accompained by the Internship officer to various Courts for a better understanding of the proceedings and the manner of litigation.

Work Environment:-

The chamber's environment was very harmonious and all the advocates were very responsible and focuses on their work. The conduct of my intern officer was zeal. he always tried to explain to me the environment of the court.

When One was given work One was expected to do it with all seriousn and intelligence. All were very helpful an kind regarding everything.

College of Law

The behaviours and attitude were very friendly of all the advocates towards me and their guidance was always provided me at every step in the court with any member of the staff.

Good things.

There were a lot of good thing during this internship which is as follows.

Perks.

1) Internship certificate
2) Letter of Appreciation
3) Exposure to the litigation world
4) Learnt about criminal, (IVI) motor vehicle and family laws.
5) Learnt about manner of Documentation
6) Done huge amount of research on criminal laws.
7) understanding of practical aspect of legal filed
8. Learn behaviour of advocates.

S.N.D.T. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

Bad things:

There was no bad thing as such but the biggest problem I faced during my internship was that there were so many cases on the pendency in the district court.

Stipend.

No stipend was provided as this was only an internship to learn the practical aspects of the law.

Accommodation / Commuting to office:

During the period of internship I used to reside at my sister p/c. It was at Nirhad ~~Gaaj~~ ~~Lucknow~~.. The court was far away from there. hence I used to go through bus or auto as transportation facility in that was outstanding.

Basic Requirements for the Internship:-

1. A diary along with pen
2. A Laptop
3. Must be eager for research and gaining knowledge

College of Law

4. Must done with daily task with diligence.
5. Recommendation letter from college.
6. Basic knowledge of MS word power point etc.

Last day formalities:-

On the last day of my internship the internship officer asked me about my experience and feedback. So I replied that from the practical point of view. I really have enjoyed my internship at District court and it will obviously be helpful for me in future.

It was perfect for me to have much exposure to the working of the legal system. In the society and it gave one a fair idea of the working of the country Legal System I was able to fulfil the objectives which I planned for obtaining during my Internship He enlightened me with his words of knowledge and blessings.

24. Ld Advocate of the accused argued the being celebrity was never taken to Bhabha Hospital medical examination was done in a crowded police station in an unhygienic condition therefore the accused refused to give blood sample and no sugestion was put to examination.

K.T.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

25. Ld Advocate for the accused argued that there is no clinical finding of consuming alcohol by the accused at time of incidence Ld Advocate for the accused relied on Bachubhai Hussainmay Kargani VS State of Maharastra. 1972 SCC 178 held that it cannot be said to be conclusively proved that a person has consumed alcohol. unless urine or blood test was carried out.

26. It is argued on behalf of the accused that FIR was registered on 23/09/2018 and charge-sheet is field on 13/02/2019. First information Report is lodged on 23/09/2018. This delay in filing charge sheet creates doubt of credibility of the investigation. lack of evidence and false implication.

27. The commencement of period of limitation is provided under section 469 of the code. As per section 469 period of limitation for taking cognizance commences on the date of the offence.

V.E.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

In the present case FIR was registered on 23/09/2018 and my Ld. predecessor ha taken cognizance 16/10/2019. The FIR was registered for the offence punishable under Section 279, 337. of The Indian penal code

28. It is argued on behalf of the accused that evidence of prosecution witness is inconsistent. The driver of the autorish and independent witness is not examined by the prosecution. The way the vehicle of the accused was chased, the evidence of medical officer and Investigation officer is full of discrepancies and numerous omission

29. As far as inconsistencies and omissions are concern the inconsistencies and should be material to discredit the evidence of prosecution witness. The discrepancies and omissions if minor in nature cannot take place of doubt in the truthful and credible version of the prosecution witness. The way th car of the accused was followed or the Jerita are the discrepancies.

4. In the reply prosecution resisted the prayer of anticipatory bail on the grounds that applicant no 1 was absconding since the date of incident. He assisted co accused mohd Ishad Suleman Shaikh in the assault upon the informant and witness. There is terror of the applicant at Maharashtra Junction Dharavi, Mumbai and he may repeat the similar serious offence to terrorize the people.

5. Heard learned Advocate for the applicant no 1 and learned App for the State. perused the documents filed with the application and produced subsequently by the applicant. It reveals that the incident took place at about 0.10 hours in the intervening night 6.10.23 and 7.10.23. The present applicant no 1. has filed Compliint against basis FIR No 293 of 2023 is registered at Shahunagar police station after registration of the FIR in CR No 292 of 2023. In the said beat sultan with iron rod on his head and that the informant alongwith other accused had beaten the applicants. It is further alleged that the left hand of the applicant No 1. got fractured in the scuffle.

The informant and other persons about the same incident and on its.

6. Learned Advocate for the applicant produced on record Consent Affidavit dated 11/10/23 where in the informant and injured witness Ramu State that got injuries in private defence they are out of hospital applicants did not use any deadly weapon or caused grievous injury and the dispute between them is amicably Settled. Therefore it appear that matter is settled between the parties.

V.E.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

7. The reply filed by prosecution show that applicant nos 2 and 3 after their arrest are released on bail by learned trail is court. So and 3 after their arrest are released on bail by learned trial court. So for as offence under section 326 of the Indian penal code is concerned.

In the FIR there is allegation against unknown person of causing injury by sharp edged weapon. There is no allegation that applicant no. 1. has used and deadly weapon in the incident It further appears that on the basis of memorandum statement given by co accused Mohd. Ishad Suleman Shaikh, the kife allegedly used in the offence is recovered,

Therefore there is no question of any recovery at the hands of applicant persons withdrawing allegations against no 1 can be granted pre arrest bail Thus following order is passed

1. The state of Maharashtra
(Gamdevi police station, Mumbai) Respondents.

Advocate prashant for applicants
Advocate Ravindra Jahar for respondent no1.

Being aggrieved with order dated 12.06.23 passed by learned metopolitan Magistrate 40th court Girgaon Mumbai in C.C no 619/pw/2017 rejecting application filed under Section 311 of the code of Criminal procedure, 1973 (in short Cr.p.c) Original accused have filed the present revision under Section 397 of Cr P.C.

2. Read application and reply Exh 4 filed by respondent no 2 who is original complainant. Heard learned Advocates appearing for both the parties. perused the documents annexed with the application.

3. Original complainant had filed complaint at Kamdeni police station on the bases of which C.R. no 106, of 2017. came to be registered against the applicants. After investigation charge-sheet was penal code is framed by learned trial court against the applicants.

4. It is case of the applicants that evidence of pw ie Rspondent no 2 came to be recorded on 15.1.2019. in absence of of accused nos 1. and 2. After recording of entire evidence was over matter was posted for final arguments. on 1.6.2023 the accused by respondent no. 2 for correction in his evidence.

M.E.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

Applicants objected the said applicati However learned trial court allowed the application vide order dated 1.6.2023. On the same day applicants moved an application for recalling pw-1 for further cross examination.

5. Applicants contend that the impugned order is not legal and maintainable. The right of cross examination of applicants is overlooked by the learned trial court and it is against principles of natural justice. further cross examination was necessary in view of the correction in the chief examination of pw 1 and learned trial Court has committed error in rejecting the application by passing impugned order.

6. following points arise for my determination to which I record my findings for the reasons to follow.

College of Law Chembur Mumbai

Sr. no	Points	findings
1	Whether the impugned order learned metropolitan magistrate is legal proper and correct?	no
3.	Whether interference is called for by this court in the impugned order?	Yes
3.	What order	Revision is allowed.

Reasons.

As to point no 1 and 2

7. Respondent no 2 in his reply raised preliminary objection that the impugned order is Interlocutory and therefore revision is not maintainable. In support of the said objection reliance is placed upon Judgement of the Honble Calcutta High Court in Sethuraman V/S Rajamanickam 2009 AD 123. On the other hand learned Advocate for applicants submit that the revision is very well maintainable In View of the Judgement of the Hon ble chhattisgarh High court In Surjeet kumar Jain V/s State of chhattisgarh 2021 All Mr. Journal 438 I have carefully considered the submissions and the judgements relied upon by both the learned Advocates.

8. In sethuraman V/s Rajamanikam 2009 AD 123, the Hon ble Calcutta High court observed that order passed under section 311 of Cr.PC for recalling of withess is of the maintainable In Surjeet Kumar Jain V/s state of chhattisgarh th Hon ble chhattisgarh High court reproduced observations of the Hon ble Supreme court in Amarnath and others V/s State of Haryana.

There is Observation of the Hon ble Sopreme Court to the affect that the order which are matters of moment and which affect or adjudicate the rights of the accused or particular aspect of the trial cannot be said to be interlocutory order.

9. So for as the facts of the present case are concerned the documents placed on record indicate that intially in evidence of PW-1 respondent no 2. deposed that I know the accused. They reside in the same premises. The said evidence was recorded on 15/1/2019 and it appears that accused No1 and 2 were not present on the said day.

The Application Exh 29 for correction of error in the above deposition for the purpose of replacing she for the word 'They was filed by respondent No. 2 on 9/7/2019. Advocate for applicants filed reply to the said application on 1.6.2023 and on the same day learned trial court allowed the said application by observing that there is minor mistake in examination in chief and no prejudice will be caused to accused. as the witness is already cross examined at length.

10. The order dated 1.6.2023 passed on Exh 29 is not challanged in the revision Therefore it is not necessary to go through the legality of the said order.

V.E.S. College of Law Chembur Mumbai

However It appears that the evidence of pw 1 was recorded by different presiding officer therefore conclusion drawn by learned trial court that it was a mere typographical mistake is prima facie not acceptable. Be that as it may. The charge under Section 457 of IPC is framed against the applicants

The initial statement made by pw-1 in examination in chief that they all the acused persons. reside in the same premises has bearing on the charge and the alleged offence of criminal trespass. When the learned trial court proceeded to correct the deposition on the application of pw-1 Informant and replaced the word. They with She it has certainly changed the tenor of the evidence in the chief examination.

The earlier cross examination would Certainly have been concluded by keeping in mind the initial Statement and therefore applicant had no opportunity Cross examine.

pw-1 as per the new tenor in his evidence. The cross examination of pw-1 by defence proceeded in the light of the Original Statement. which came to be changed at the time of final argument. Therefore the observation of the learned trial court that no prejudice will be caused to the applicants is perverse.

11. The right to cross examine prosecution witness is a valuable right of the defence in criminal trial principles of natural justice and fair play expect that full opportunity should be provided to the accused to defend the charge. As laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Bmarnath and others V/S State of Haryana the. impugned order can not be termed as purely interlocutory order as it affects the valuable right of the applicants to cross examine the witness on the evidence against them.

Therefore in my view the impugned order can not be said to be purely interlocutory so as to bar the revision. under section 397(2)

Chembur College of Law Mumbai

As dready observed in my opinion the findey recorded by the learned trial court while passing the impugned order is proper and corre

Hence interference is called can not be said to court in onercise of revisional jurisdiction and the impugned order is liable to be quashed and set aside. Accordujly point no1 is answered in the negative point no2 is answered in the affirmative and following order is passed.

1. Criminal revision Application no 60 of 2023 is allowed and order date 12.06.2023 passed by learned metropolitan magistrate 40th court Girgaon Mumbai. below Exh 60 in c.c no 619/pw/2017 is quashed and set side

2. the application Exh 60 filed by th applicants / accused stands allowed.
