6.2.1 The institutional Strategic / Perspective plan is effectively deployed

Response:

VES College of Law, part of the Vivekanand Education Society, is a prominent institution dedicated to fostering legal education in India. Established with the vision of creating competent legal professionals, the college has consistently contributed to the legal landscape through innovative teaching methods, comprehensive curricula, and a commitment to excellence.

The Vivekanand Education Society, the trust behind VES College of Law, plays a crucial role in the institution's development. By ensuring robust funding and resources, the trust facilitates the establishment of modern infrastructure, library facilities, and digital resources that enhance the learning environment. Additionally, the trust's commitment to faculty development programs ensures that educators are well-equipped with the latest pedagogical tools and legal knowledge, directly benefiting the students' learning experience.

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) is pivotal in maintaining and enhancing the quality of education at VES College of Law. The IQAC implements systematic reviews and evaluations of academic programs, ensuring that the institution meets and exceeds educational standards. Regular feedback mechanisms involving students and faculty help identify areas for improvement. The IQAC also promotes research and innovation, encouraging faculty and students to engage in scholarly activities that contribute to the legal field and society at large. Through workshops, seminars, and guest lectures, the IQAC ensures that the college remains aligned with contemporary legal practices and trends.

Enhancing Ties Between Practical Advocacy and Academic Institutions: A Case Study

The college's strategic plan was conceptualized with the vision of strengthening relationships between practical advocacy and academic institutions. The primary aim is to bridge the gap between academia and practical knowledge, ensuring that students gain practical insights and experience in legal practice.

1. Placement Cell:

- The placement cell plays a critical role in facilitating the transition of students from academic life to professional practice. The objective of a placement cell is to Bridge the Gap Between Academia and Industry, Promote Networking Opportunities, Ensure Industry Relevance. These cells provide internship opportunities, court visits, and placements to equip students with practical legal exposure beyond classroom learning.

2. Engagement through Alumni Round Tables, Legal Interfaces, and MOOT Court Workshop

- Workshops Moot Court and on advocacy skills further enhance students' practical competencies, helping them navigate the transition from academic learning to legal practice.

3. Enhancing Institutional Visibility and Employability in the Legal Field

- Through these initiatives, the college not only gains visibility within the legal community but also builds a reputation for producing practice-ready graduates.
- The strategic plan positions the institution as a leader in graduate employability by equipping students with essential advocacy skills and firsthand court experience, giving them a competitive edge in the legal profession.

This case study highlights the importance of synergizing legal practice with academic programs, creating a seamless pathway for students to apply theoretical knowledge in real-world legal scenarios. By aligning academic programs with the demands of legal practice, the college ensures its graduates are well-prepared for the challenges of advocacy.

C. Miscellaneous provisions

1. Force Majeure

If a party is prevented from or delayed in carrying out any provision of this MOU by reason of Force Majeure, as defined in the definition clause, the party whose performance is so prevented or delayed, upon prompt notice to the other party, shall be excused from such performance, to the extent and during the period of such prevention or delay.

2. Governing Law

This MOU will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of India.

3. Arbitration

In case of any dispute etc. the decision of an arbitrator appointed by both parties jointly shall prevail and will be binding on both parties.

The provisions of this clause shall survive the termination of the MOU.

4. Assignment

Neither party shall assign this MOU to a third party without the prior written / electronic consent of the other party.

5. Variation and Waiver

No variation of any of the terms of the MOU shall be binding unless confirmed in writing or through electronic mail and no failure, delay, relaxation or forbearance on the part of either party in exercising any power or right under this MOU shall operate as a waiver of such power or right.

Failure of a Party to insist upon strict and punctual performance of any provision hereof shall neither constitute a waiver of, or estoppels against asserting, the right to require such performance, nor shall such failure in one case constitute a waiver or estoppels with respect to a later case.

6. Entirety

This MOU is the entire MOU recording the broad understanding between the Parties. Each Party represents that in entering into this MOU it does not rely on any previous representations, whether express or implied, or on any prior inducement or MOU of any kind or nature. All prior negotiations, representations, letters of intent or MOUs concerning the subject matter of this MOU are hereby deemed cancelled.

7. Relationship

Nothing herein shall be deemed to constitute the Parties, or any of them, as partners, association, agent of each other nor shall anything contained herein deem to confer on any Party any authority to incur any obligations or liability on behalf of the other Party nor shall have the power to obligate or bind the other in any way whatsoever, except as provided herein.

8. Miscellaneous

This MOU shall be interpreted, having regard to its underlying business purposes, in a reasonable and commercial manner rather than in strict accordance with the literal meaning of the language used.

Should any provision of this MOU become void or otherwise unenforceable for any reason, the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby and the parties shall use their best endeavors to negotiate in good faith to find replacement for the provision which is void or unenforceable with a provision of similar economic effect.

9. Execution

This MOU is executed in paper form in duplicate and one paper-based copy hereof shall be retained under the physical control of ASCL and the other paper-based copy hereof shall be retained under the physical control of V.E.S. College of Law.
