D.L.S.A. IN ASSOCIATION WITH T.I.S.S.

JUSTICE AT THE GRASSROOTS

7th August 2025

PURPOSE

Organised by the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) in collaboration with Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), the event aimed to enhance legal literacy and social outreach.

In furtherance of the institution's commitment to nurturing socially conscious jurists, a Legal Aid and Social Justice Awareness Programme was organised to sensitise students towards the principles of equality, welfare, and accessibility of justice. The event sought to bridge the gap between legal education and community service, reaffirming the idea that the study of law attains its true meaning only when it reaches the lives of the marginalized.

ESSENCE

The sessions engaged students in thought-provoking discussions on legal aid mechanisms, social welfare initiatives, and the constitutional promise of justice for all, particularly for the underprivileged and vulnerable sections of society. Through interactive activities and case-based analysis, participants explored the practical dimensions of extending legal support to those who are often deprived of their rights due to economic or social constraints.

HIGHLIGHTS

Distinguished experts and faculty members illuminated the statutory and constitutional frameworks governing legal aid in India, with a special focus on the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, and Article 39A of the Constitution, which enshrines the directive for free legal aid and equal access to justice. These deliberations emphasized how the legal profession serves as both a shield and a voice for the voiceless.

The programme exemplified the belief that law without accessibility is justice denied and that every law student bears the responsibility to act as a paralegal bridge between the legal system and society. It reinforced the vision that the pursuit of law must be guided not only by intellect but also by empathy ensuring that justice does not remain confined to courtrooms, but extends to every corner where rights await recognition.

TEACHERS' DAY

PAYING TRIBUTE TO THE TORCH BEARERS OF KNOWLEDGE

4th September 2025

PURPOSE

In honour of the unselfish sacrifice of the teachers who are the keystones of the light in every student. The celebration sought to recognise educators as architects of intellect and character, whose influence transcends classrooms and endures across lifetimes

HIGHLIGHTS

It started with the light of the ceremonial lamp, which represented the everlasting fire of wisdom. The aura of reverence filled the auditorium as students came forth with cultural expressions, eloquent speeches, theatrical skits, and creative tributes each a heartfelt manifestation of gratitude.

Every performance was a reflection of the students' deep respect and admiration for their mentors, portraying that teaching is not merely a profession, but a divine vocation that shapes destinies. The faculty members were felicitated with tokens of appreciation, symbolic of high esteem, affection, and reverence. Smiles, emotions, and applause painted an atmosphere that felt less like a formal ceremony and more like a familial gathering of shared purpose and pride.

Students were grateful and kind-hearted by performing cultural elements, making speeches, Skit and creative tributes.

ESSENCE

The event was a wakeup call that education is not a relationship information exchange but a relationship of transformation by teachers to mould the conscience of a generation. Vivekananda rightly proclaimed, teacher is the maker man." This celebration stood as a living testament to that eternal truth, reaffirming that every teacher torchbearer lights the way not only to knowledge but to wisdom, empathy, and ethical living.

HINDI BHASHA DIWAS

CELEBRATING THE SOUL OF LINGUISTIC IDENTITY

16th September 2025

PURPOSE

To honour Hindi, the language that binds the diverse threads of India's cultural and legal fabric into a unified whole. The celebration sought to remind every scholar and citizen alike that language is not merely a medium of communication, but the very essence of collective consciousness and constitutional identity. Through this observance, the college reaffirmed its commitment to promoting Hindi as a language of inclusivity, accessibility, and jurisprudential depth.

ESSENCE

The celebration of Hindi Bhasha Diwas stood as a symbol of India's linguistic unity amidst diversity, affirming the belief that justice must speak in the language of the people it serves. It reminded every aspiring jurist that the law loses its soul when it becomes linguistically inaccessible.

In the hallowed halls of Vivekananda Education Society's College of Law, the day became more than an event it was a reverberation of identity, inclusivity, and cultural sovereignty. It conveyed that Hindi, much like justice, derives its true strength from the people and when both are understood by the masses, democracy attains its fullest expression.

HIGHLIGHTS

The event was graced by the esteemed Chief Guest, an eminent personality whose presence lent intellectual gravitas to the occasion. In a profound address, the guest underscored the significance of linguistic integrity within the nation's jurisprudence, emphasizing how language serves as a bridge between law and the layperson.

A vibrant series of competitions and cultural expressions followed including kavita path (poetry recitation), essay writing, and elocution. Each performance became a celebration of India's literary heritage and a reaffirmation of patriotic pride. Students mesmerized the audience with their eloquence, poetic finesse, and creative articulation, showcasing Hindi as both a language of the heart and the intellect.

Adding a constitutional dimension, participants delved into the legal recognition of language rights under Articles 343–351 of the Indian Constitution, reflecting upon the delicate balance between unity and linguistic diversity. The discussions brought forth how the Official Languages Act, 1963 continues to safeguard this balance, ensuring that no citizen feels alienated by the law's language.

PUBLIC INTEREST LITIGATION DRAFTING

ADVOCACY IN ACTION: LAW FOR THE VOICELESS

18th September 2025

PURPOSE

To acquaint budding jurists with the instrument of PIL, a cornerstone of Indian judicial activism, ensuring access to justice for all. Students were trained to draft petitions addressing public grievances, constitutional violations, and socio-relational issues. The workshop simulated real-court procedures, guided by legal faculty and the head of the moot court association committee.

HIGHLIGHTS

Special emphasis was placed on critical legal doctrines such as locus standi the right to approach the court in matters of public concern, maintainability of petitions, and the doctrine of public duty, which collectively underpin the jurisprudence of PIL in India. Students were encouraged to explore how these principles have evolved through landmark Supreme Court judgments and their continuing relevance in contemporary legal discourse.

The workshop thus served as a platform not merely for skill enhancement but also for nurturing a sense of constitutional empathy and civic responsibility, reaffirming the role of future lawyers as custodians of social justice and democratic integrity.

ESSENCE

Emphasis was placed on locus standi, maintainability, and the doctrine of public duty.

The exercise nurtured socially conscious practicality, echoing Justice Bhagwati's vision that "the court must act as the sentinel on the qui vive."
