1. All members were introduced and welcomed.
2. We shared the existing FYBA syllabus in which the following changes were suggested:
  - In Unit 1 of Sem 1, the sub topic on 'relationship between sociology to other sciences' was to be replaced by the 'enlightenment period'.
  - In Unit 2 of Sem 1, contemporary forms of cohabitation was introduced and sect cult, animism, naturism was replaced with 'new age religions'
  - In Unit 1 of Sem 2, relationships at a distance on a global/virtual platform was replaced with Body Shaming/Positivity, Impact of Social Influencers
  - In Unit 3 of Sem 2, cyberbullying was suggested to be introduced.

3. For the evaluation process, it was decided to divide the 75 marks to 30+45. Where 30 marks are awarded for various methods of objective evaluation (MCQ's, True or false, explain the terms etc.) and 45 marks are to be given for long answers, 15 marks each, with internal choice for all questions.
4. For internal assessment, it was decided to have 25 marks divided into 10+15. Wherein, 10 marks would be an MCQ test and 15 marks would be based on group presentations on relevant topics depending on the discretion of the subject teacher concerned.

On the feedback from the industry expert, it was decided that the 20 hours of social involvement participation mandated for students for the subject of sociology may be continued to be maintained. This brought us to the end of the meeting.
